Update for Signers of Pledge to Fight for Good Jobs, Sustainable Prosperity, & Economic Justice

You are receiving this email update because you are one of 10,000 activists who signed the Pledge to Fight for Good Jobs, Sustainable Prosperity, and Economic Justice.

Please share and spread the word.

And check out the Organizing Resources feature.

4. Opportunity and Justice for All—With Focus on Communities Harmed by Racism Protest now against family-separation policy. Find an event here!

Families Belong Together | Familias Unidas No Divididas
FAMILIES BELONG TOGETHER We are proud members of the coalition led by @WomenBelong . We demand an end to the cruel & unjustified separation of immigrant children from their familiesbelong.org

All of the 11-planks of the Pledge for Prosperity are aimed at ending poverty in the US.

The Poor People's Campaign, led by William Barber, is calling for a massive March to Fight Poverty—in DC and around the country.

This Saturday, thousands of activists will take to the US Capitol for a massive March to Fight Poverty in Washington D.C. The Rally will begin at 10am (ET).

JOIN THE MARCH

In the face of systemic racism, systemic poverty, ecological devastation, the war economy/militarism, and the distorted moral narrative of religious nationalism — we must engage in mass nonviolent moral direct action. We must declare that we won't be silent anymore about the war on the poor!

On Saturday, June 23 the Campaign will head to the US Capitol in Washington, D.C. for a call to action Rally to Fight Poverty Not the Poor, capping off our #40DaysOfAction and launching the next phase of our movement for the long-haul.

that you'll attend the rally on Facebook below to show our elected officials we will no longer allow attention violence to keep poor and disenfranchised people down! If you need transportation to the rally or if you can provide a car, click here. Then before you go, check out this Democracy Now video and Nation article to learn how this movement's making waves.

8. Make Corporations and Wealthy Pay

Their Fair Share

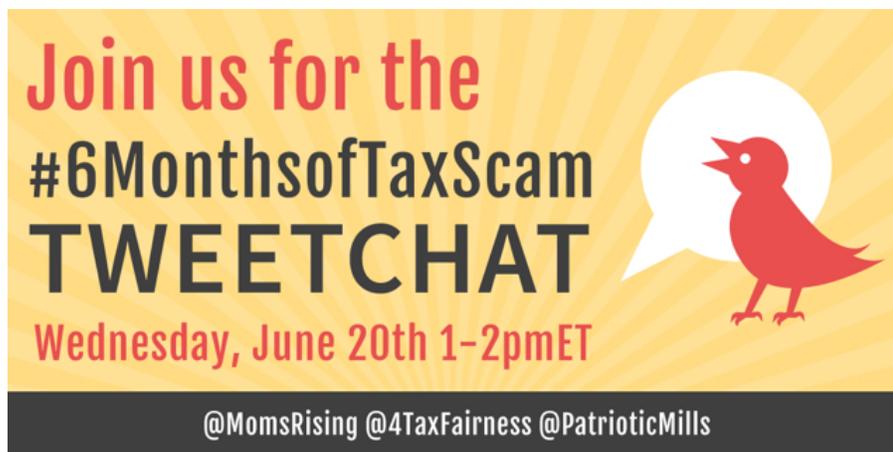

Materials for 6-Month Tax Scam Anniversary this Week (June 20-22)

It was 6 months ago that Trump signed the so-called Tax Cuts and Jobs Act (Dec. 20, 2017), a historic assault on the vast majority of Americans.

Americans for Tax Fairness has put together materials for groups to organize protests around these milestone dates. Linked below are loads of "Report Card" themed materials to help hold Trump and the Republicans accountable for their broken promises and the damage we are already seeing being done to working families. ATF warns Trump and Congressional Republicans are planning to "double down" before the November Election as they try to pass a Round 2 Tax Scam that would hand even more to the wealthy and could cost another $1 trillion.

All materials are available on ATF's "Six-Month Anniversary" Resource Page to help organize local events or participate in digital actions.

Please help amplify the message that the Trump-GOP tax cuts are failing working families so that we can win the battle of the airwaves this week.
